TRIAL IN LAST STAGE

Hawley Upholds Evidence Given by Harry Orchard.

QUOTES LAW OF CONSPIRACY

Characterizes Miners' Federation as "Worst Band of Conspirators that Ever Infested Any Section of the Country."

Boise, Idaho, July 22.—The trial of William D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, has entered its last stage and James H. Hawley, [illegible] counsel for the prosecution, has argued to the jury that the evidence presented by the state proves the guilt of Haywood as a member, to use his own words, "of the worst band of conspirators that ever infested any section of this country."

Hawley has characterized Orchard's evidence as a plain story, told without effort of concealment, without boastfulness and without fear. He points out that a cross-examination without parallel in the history of criminal cases failed to alter the story in any one particular. He maintained that the confession of Orchard was due to the "power of Divine Grace."

Law of Conspiracy.

Quoting the law of conspiracy that every man connected by the evidence with the conspiracy and combination must be responsible for every act done and word spoken by a member of the combination, Mr. Hawley said it was a just law because otherwise any man might preach a combustible crime and then fall back, claiming that his hands were clean, though the latter's crime resulted from his advice. On this, he said, is based the charge against Haywood that he murdered ex-Governor Steunenberg and on this was based the affidavit made by the county attorney to secure the extradition of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone.

"Any statement," said Hawley, "that counsel for the defense may make to you charging that the extradition of these men was secured on a perjured affidavit is false, and done merely for the purpose of distracting your attention and creating prejudice against the prosecution. We maintain that under the plain law of conspiracy Haywood is guilty of the murder of Governor Steunenberg."

Mr. Hawley had reviewed the evidence of the blowing up of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan concentrator at Wradner for which he maintains the Western Federation of Miners, through its officers, was responsible and in plain words charged wilful perjury against a number of witnesses brought by the defense to contradict Orchard's story of the crime.

Charged with Great Crime.

Mr. Hawley said that the state expected Easterly and Davis and Copley and Haywood and Moyer to swear that they had nothing to do with any of the crimes charged against them. He said he did not blame them for perjuring themselves when they were charged with a great crime.

Turning to Colorado, the counsel referred to the evidence of Thomas Moore, who swore for the defense in their showing that the explosion at the Vindicator mine was due to an accident. The killing of McCormick and the accident at the Vindicator, he referred to as a heinous crime, but said an awful crime was contemplated because the intention was to blow a whole carload of nonunion men to eternity without warning. Mr. Hawley produced a plan of the mine and with a pointed cane showed the errors in Wood's testimony. He brought out photographs to show that the conditions Wood described were non-existent and finally he showed to the jury the pieces of the pistol which Wood said Beck carried in his pocket. Mr. Hawley pointed out that Beck's body was not mangled and asked how the pistol could be so shattered into scrap iron and no member of the man's body torn away.

Says Wood Told Untruth.

FIRE-BUGS ARE WORKING HERE

Three Houses Were Set Simultaneously Early Monday Morning.

TWO WERE COMPLETE LOSS

DeBose Bros. Lost Their Store and Stock, While Another House Occupied by Colored Woman Had Furniture Burned—A Heavy Loss.

There is a fire-bug existing in Gainesville, and he got in his work at 1:30 o'clock Monday morning, when three houses were set simultaneously, two of which were burned almost to the ground, as the department was taxed to its utmost capacity in handling the situation.

The first house apparently set was a house owned and occupied by Dr. R. B. Ayer, North Garden street. Dr. Ayer was absent, but his housekeeper noticed the flame when it was not much larger than a man's hat. She, with presence of mind, secured a bucket of water and extinguished it. She saw the shadow of a man in the yard and fired, but the shots never took effect.

At 1:30 o'clock Monday morning the alarm of fire was turned in from box 24, and almost instantly flames were leaping from the store of De[illegible] Bros., colored, and a house occupied by Rev. Pearl Daniel of Tampa and occupied by Cora Smith, the former on North Pleasant and the latter on North Garden street.

The department responded promptly, but for a time was unable to cope with the situation. Streams were turned on both buildings after a time, however, and the flames were under control in a few moments, although the contents of the places were badly damaged.

DeBose Bros., who are among the most progressive of the colored merchants, control a good trade among both white and colored in that section, carried a stock of groceries and notions ranging from $800 to $1,000. The stock was insured for $500. The building, a one-story structure, is owned by T. E. DeBose, and was insured for $200.

The residence owned by Rev. Daniel is a commodious four-room structure, valued at about $400. The owner and occupant are both absent from the city, and it was not ascertained whether or not there was any insurance. The building was a total loss, with the exception of the foundation. The burning of the matter Monday was that one of the DeBose boys stated he was positive of the guilty party who set the places on fire, but that he was in no position to offer proof. Detectives are at work on the case, however, and something may develop within the next few days.

The crime of arson is a serious one, and the guilty party should be apprehended and punished, as no home is safe with fire-bugs running at large in the vicinity.

DeBose Bros. will at once make preparations to reopen their business, hoping to be ready to accommodate patrons temporarily by Saturday.

DEATH OF MR. JONES.

One of Gainesville's Well Known Young Men Passes Away.

James A. Jones, thirty-two years of age, and one of Gainesville's well-known young men, died at 12:45 Monday morning of typhoid fever, after an illness of nearly three weeks.

Deceased was born in the western part of Alachua county, and has been a resident of the county all his life. He moved to Gainesville about six years ago, and for the past four years has been employed as a salesman in the store of J. G. Harrold. He was a sober, upright young man, and was very popular with all who knew him.

Deceased was a member of the Woodmen of the World, where he was also quite popular, being an active and ambitious member of the order. The funeral was held from the residence Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. P. W. Corr of the Baptist church conducted the services at the home, after which Alachua Camp of the Woodmen assumed charge of the ceremonies, and the beautiful and impressive ritual of this order was carried out at the grave.

Deceased is survived by a widow and three small children—two sons and a daughter—to whom the sympathy of the community is extended.

JUSTICE COLMAN'S COURT.

Joe. Scarbro Arraigned Upon Charge of Aggravated Assault.

There was an interesting case in Justice Colman's court Monday, being the case of the State vs. Joe. Scarbro, colored, charged with aggravated assault upon the person of George Williams, which it is alleged occurred in the vicinity of the Seaboard Air Line depot Sunday night. It is alleged in the affidavit that Scarbro advanced upon Williams with a knife.

Judge Colman placed the defendant under a bond of $105 for his appearance before the grand jury at the fall term of the circuit court. Baker, Matheson & Baxter, attorneys for the prisoner, endeavored to secure his release under habeas corpus proceedings, but failed, hence he must either give bond or remain in jail.

WILL SOON BEGIN PAVING.

O. Petre Will Begin Work on East Main Street as Soon as Possible.

O. Petre, who has the contract for paving East Main street N. with the same material as is used on West Liberty street, leading to the University, expects to begin his work as soon as the lateral sewerage connections are made, which will be done as soon as the ordinance requiring same is passed by the council.

Mr. Petre states that he expects to do an extra fine job on this work, as the supply of rock which has accumulated while he has been waiting is choice, and he proposes to give the people a pavement that will last almost a lifetime.

J. W. Malphurs' Patent.

J. W. Malphurs of this city has secured a patent which may make a rich man of him some day, as it is regarded by railroad men who have seen it to be absolutely the safest and best thing on the market.

This patent is in the nature of an automatic cap coupler, so arranged that it never fails, and will never part until released by a lever.

Mr. Malphurs has the model, which works like a charm. He has been offered a thousand dollars for the patent, but refused, because he feels sure that it is a coming fortune for him.

M'NEILL COMMITTED WITHOUT BAIL

Alleged Wife Murderer Sent Up to County Jail in Palatka.

PUNCHED WIFE WITH UMBRELLA

Sharp End Entered Her Eye, Causing Fracture of Skull, as Reported by Autopsy Held After Body Was Exhumed—Trial at Interlachen.

Walter McNeill, colored, charged with causing the death of his wife by punching her in the eye with the sharp point of an umbrella at Cone's Crossing, Putnam county, on July 4, an account of which has already appeared in The Sun, was given a preliminary hearing before the justice court at Interlachen Saturday, and was committed to jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury of Putnam county at the fall session of the circuit court.

Attorney J. M. Rivers of this city, State attorney for the Eighth Judicial Circuit, was present, and pushed the case for all it was worth.

It will be remembered that McNeill and his wife were on a Fourth of July outing at Cone's Crossing. It is alleged that both were drinking, and they became involved in a difficulty, McNeill punching the woman in the eye with an umbrella.

SEIGLER STOCK SOLD.

Stock of General Merchandise Knocked Down to Administratrix.

Attorney J. M. Rivers made a trip to Waldo Monday, where he assumed the position of an auctioneer.

Col. Rivers went to auction off the stock of general merchandise of the estate of W. D. Seigler, deceased, and proved himself quite efficient in this direction. He had many bidders, and carried himself with the dignity belonging to a regularly licensed auctioneer, and on the side some of his friends good-naturedly suggested that he had "missed his calling" when it came to choosing a profession.

The stock was finally bought in by the administratrix, the widow of deceased, the price being $2,950. It is not known whether Mrs. Seigler will continue the business or close the same out. The business has always proved a prosperous one, and friends are suggesting that she continue it.

The Gainesville National.

The Gainesville National Bank, the new financial institution which is destined to bring a great many more depositors to this city, threw open its doors for business Monday, and the first day's work was very encouraging to those in charge.

This institution, which starts out with a capital stock of $100,000, is one of the strongest banks in this section of the country, and is managed by conservative financiers and business men who are bound to make the same a success.

While it will be the purpose of the officers and directors of this bank to be as liberal as possible at the same time they propose to be conservative, which is best and safest for the interest of the depositors and stockholders alike.

YOUNG GREEK LAD PROVES A BAD EGG

Has No Respect for His Parent Or Court.

DEFIES THE WHOLE BUSINESS

With a Brick He Swears He Will Kill Father, and When He Appeared in Court Against Parent Acted Rudely and Was Sent to Jail in Contempt.

A pistol shot about 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, eminating from a room in the opera house block occupied by Alexander Chrisostomidhes, attracted a hundred or more people to the scene within less than five minutes, and for a time excitement reigned among those who were gathered down stairs, but none of whom cared to venture to the room.

Eventually Marshal Arnow arrived on the scene, and, in company with J. F. Smith and one or two others, went to the room of Mr. Chrisostomidhes.

The facts developed that Chrisostomidhes, whose life had been threatened by his son, Alex, Jr., with a brick, had discharged a pistol to frighten the boy away, and that is what caused the excitement.

This story has a most peculiar turn. Everybody who knows anything about Chrisostomidhes and his son knows that there has frequently been trouble between them ever since the father brought the son to this country from the Island of Turque two years ago. There has always existed a friction, and, nothwithstanding that it is said Chrisostomidhes has endeavored to treat his son, who is only sixteen years of age, right, that the son has continually given him trouble. Where the fault lies belongs for the public to judge.

Marshal Arnow placed the father under arrest and required his appearance at the Mayor's court Monday morning. The father was present at the appointed hour, 9 o'clock, and the son was there to appear as a witness against him. The older Chrisostomidhes was relating his evidence explaining that the boy had threatened to kill him with a brick if he did not give him money, and that he merely discharged the gun to frighten the boy, who held the brick in his hand, when the boy suddenly arose and began using the most vile language against his parent, calling him all kinds of abusive names, including things that would not do to go in print.

This suddenly ended the proceedings, as Mayor Thomas ordered the discharge of Alexander Chrisostomidhes, Sr., and the arrest of the boy, whom he gave a jail sentence for contempt of court.

Young Chrisostomidhes is now in jail, and will remain there until his sentence has expired. At its expiration he will no doubt leave the city which would be the best thing, his relatives say, for all concerned.

Young Chrisostomidhes has proven quite a character here. His father brought him to this country for the purpose of educating him, but it was on an average of a fight a day he had at school, where he was a burden to him and those whom he had to oppose. His disposition does not seem of the most even temperament, with the result that he is continually in some kind of trouble.

LOST ALL HOPE OF CURING HUMORS

Member of U. S. Ordnance Corps Had Skin, Scalp, and Blood Trouble —For Four Months Tried Various Remedies with No Lasting Effect —Permanently Cured and Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES ARE UNEXCELLED"

"About a year ago I was a sufferer from skin, scalp, and blood humors. For four months I used various remedies prescribed to me for their treatment, but they gave only temporary relief and then the distressing blood humors were back as usual. I finally lost all hopes of getting cured of this ailment. But a friend induced me to give the Cuticura Remedies a fair trial. He had been troubled with the same disease and said he had been permanently cured by Cuticura. So I got the whole treatment, consisting of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent, and after I began the treatment I could see and feel that it was a success. The Cuticura Resolvent is certainly of great value as it cleanses the system of all humor germs and makes digestion easy. I used two complete sets of the Cuticura Remedies and I can say this much, that I was permanently cured by them. I want to say further, that these Remedies are unexcelled in curing the worst forms of skin and scalp humors. S. D. Phillips, Ordinance Corps, U. S. A., Rock Is. Arsenal, Rock Is., Ill., Nov. 22, 1906."

SHERIFF BENNETT TOOK HIS OWN LIFE

Shot Himself in Right Temple at His Home in Starke.

JUST HOME FROM ALABAMA

Wrote Several Notes During His Absence, Which Showed That He Had Deliberately Planned to Take His Own Life—Well Known Here.

Monday's Times-Union has the following telegram from Starke, which will be of interest to many people of this section, as deceased was well known:

"This place was shocked as never before when it was learned that at 1 o'clock this morning J. P. Bennett, sheriff of Bradford county, had committed suicide at his home by shooting himself in the right temple, death having been almost instantaneous. The sheriff had just returned from a trip to Mobile, Ala., where he went for some parties.

"The following letters or notes in envelopes show that he fully premeditated the act.

"First, written at Pensacola: 'My wife's name is Evelyn Bennett, Starke, Fla. Notify her and she will send me home.'

"Second: 'My Dear Wife—You have always been good to me. Collect what is due me and pay N. T. Rich what I am due him. J. P. B.'

"Third: 'I decided to wait until I got home. Goodby.'

"There are many conjectures as to why he committed this rash act, but it is generally conceded that his inability to let liquor alone had much to do with it.

"Mr. Bennett was born and raised in Bradford county and has been honored by the people by his election to the office of tax collector and then to sheriff. Certainly it must have been despondency.

"He was buried at Crosby's cemetery this afternoon by the Odd Fellows, with an escort from the Masonic fraternity, both orders of which he was a member.

"He leaves a wife and two daughters, who have the full sympathy of the people generally."

IS ENJOYING HIMSELF.

Capt. Wienges Writes That He is Having a Big Time in Carolina.

Sam H. Wienges, the efficient clerk of the court for Alachua county, who, with his son, Charlie, is enjoying life for a few days at the former's old haunts in South Carolina, writes friends here that he is having the "biggest kind of a time."

The postal, which is a souvenir, was written from Charleston, but Mr. Wienges expected to go in a day or two to McBeath and other points in South Carolina to spend the remainder of his vacation.

Friends will be glad to know that "Uncle Sam" is enjoying himself at his old home, for no one is more entitled to this privilege than he.

Oak Halls Were Defeated.

Monday afternoon witnessed a great game between the Oak Halls and the second baseball teams at the park, the latter team unmercifully whipping the Oak Halls by a score of 7 to 1.

The Oak Halls have always been a credit to Gainesville, and the name has made Gainesville famous in the amateur baseball world; but when it comes to permitting a crowd of youngsters from twelve to sixteen years to "do them up" as they were "done up" Monday, it looks as though it might be about time to change the lineup.

The batteries were as follows: Oak Halls, Ed Clark and S. Graham; High School, Theo. Cannon and Dallas Bowers.

Judge Parker endorses the idea of a candidate from a Southern State, but refuses to intimate who he favors. He says the South is full of men of presidential caliber.

All Republicans are not grafters, but almost all the grafters are Republicans, who have doubtless been induced to become such by the corrupting system of protective tariffs and bounties.

The State Fair will be held in Tampa from February 3rd to 28th, 1908. It is generally conceded that that is a much better time of the year to show them in the fall, especially as far as citrus fruits are concerned.

The Melbourne Times says "the increased cost of living has made our present gold coin a 50-cent dollar: that is, it is not more than 40 cents." Correct you are, Brother Osteen, especially when it comes to buying chickens in this section.

The Pensacola News says the other friends for United States Senator have assured that Senator Mallory is a candidate to succeed himself. He announced some months since, and has not seen any communication from him to the contrary.

Booker T. Washington says that "President Hines his job." No doubt Booker T would like to see his friend and now neighbor keep it. He would even promise him the vote of Alabama in order to induce him to accept a third term. Booker is a very polite man, and a very "promising" man.

The Northwestern Miller says it is admitted that the Government crop reports are worthless. Then why do the Republican Congressmen representing the wheat region vote to maintain the worthless reports, or arrange for their betterment, as the Democratic Congressmen of the cotton States are trying to reform the cotton statistics.

Albert Williamson, editor of The Jacksonville Floridian, does not seem to have a very exalted opinion of United States District Attorney Sheppard, who is being pushed forward as a successor to the late Judge Swayne. Albert is pretty well acquainted with the public men of this state, and we had rather take his opinion regarding Sheppard than that of some others who have endorsed him for this life position.

President Roosevelt and the other Republican leaders who agree with him that the States have been derelict in their duty of protecting themselves against trusts and other corporations, should keep their eye on Illinois. Judge Morris of the common pleas court of that State has sentenced thirty trust magnates to jail, and he declares fines are no check against violations of the anti-trust law. So far President Roosevelt has not succeeded in securing one such conviction by his administration under the national anti-trust law.

SUAVITER IN MODO.

The New York Evening Post is always very respectful to the President. It is somewhat English, you know. Ordinarily it thinks the King can do no wrong. But it hints that the President is playing double in the Japanese matter for campaign purposes. It says: "One of the most unpleasant features of the whole affair is the strange course of the administration. If our President were, on his own confession, anything but the sincerest and squarest of men, we should be troubled by the apparent duplicity of the statement made in his name. On Tuesday last his private secretary gave an official dementi to the rumors that a squadron of battleships was to be sent to the Pacific. You may say that the President has not even considered the advisability of sending any ships to the Pacific. Two days later this became a 'possible' cruise to the Pacific, but not 'at once.' After that came Secretary Metcalf's announcement in California that the battleships were to go directly to the Pacific, and that the plans for the movement had been made long before in Washington. All this may be firm and wise and consistent statesmanship, but anyone can see how deplorably it lends itself to the brawling of the sensational newspapers. Considering the very bad impression made both at home and abroad, we think that the commander-in-chief of the navy ought to revoke his order—or, if necessary, give out a new version of what he had always intended to do."

REPUBLICAN DEFEAT PREDICTED

John S. Wise, one of the most eminent Southern Republicans, but now residing in New York, made an address lately before the Maryland Bar Association on "Centralization by Construction." He said President Roosevelt's attempt to broaden Federal power by interpretation is to make an "India-rubber Constitution," and declared that the doctrine of Federal power, increased by construction under the plea of changed conditions, is the most insidious and dangerous heresy brought before the people of America. But then John S. Wise belongs to the old Lincoln school of politics that is entirely outrun by the strenuous type of Republicans of today. The speeches of President Roosevelt, said Mr. Wise, indicate a singular ignorance of the boundary line between Federal and State powers, and he predicted that the people would not uphold a party which advocated Federal or State aggression.

Republicans who think as Mr. Wise does must needs come over to the Democracy, and will undoubtedly do so if wisdom is shown in platform declarations and selection of candidates.

The constitution of Oklahoma appears to have had side lines and hobbies put on it and to have been brought into camp ready for saddling at the behest of the administration. It was a pretty good constitution as originally drafted, and there seems to have been little need for revising it. But the political leaders of the State were more under the domination of Washington than at first appeared and when the original document did not meet with instant White House approval it was knifed and pruned into more acceptable administration shape. Some of the provisions of the Oklahoma constitution were referred to as radical, but as a matter of fact the most of them were radicalisms that will look pretty conservative within ten years.

It's all right now. Vice-President Fairbanks has squared himself on the cocktail matter by refusing one in Seattle and calling for lemonade.

FROM THE PAGES OF FLORIDA PAPERS.

Good Law in Some Cases.

The "unwritten law" does not seem to be confined to this country. In Brussels the son of a Chilian diplomat shot and killed his sister's betrayer. The jury acquitted him and as he left the court room he was seized and kissed by many women.—Miami Metropolis.

In the "Lime" Light.

Dr. J. H. Rowe has the champion lime tree of Florida. It has set its fourth crop. Every limb of the tree is well filled, but strange to say, at the very tip end of the branches they are in clusters like grapefruit. The present crop is estimated at $25, to say nothing about what was sold through the fall, winter and spring. The tree is at least fifteen feet in diameter. It will have to be staked to keep the limbs from falling off.—St. Petersburg Independent.

A Pipe Dream.

The Everglades have been industriously exploited as the star sugar farm of the world after drainage and the other preliminary steps have been taken, but Editor Harris, of The Ocala Banner, pierces the future with prophetic eye and sees a noble city rising from that mysterious swamp which, before he is called hence, will be larger than either Jacksonville or Tampa. There's an optimist for you! Or would you call that a Venetian pipe dream with gondola trimmings? We hope that Editor Harris may live forever, and we suspect that he will have to pretty nearly do so in order to see his vision realized.—Live Oak Democrat.

Ancient City Getting a Move On.

Bids for the building of the Seminole theater will be opened today. This building will be completed in time for the winter season and will be one of the new attractions of the city. Regular visitors to St. Augustine will see numerous improvements when they return. The trolley-car service will be appreciated for its convenience as the new theater will be for the higher class of entertainment it will bring. These innovations will inspire confidence in the visitor and will exert a wide influence in tempting investment. Let each one do his share towards rendering the city attractive to the visitor and each year will find us advancing with greater and swifter strides.—St. Augustine Record.

The Whole Cheese.

The Telegraph stated last week that Editor L'Engle of The Tallahasse Sun was afflicted with egotism. The point of the statement is illustrated in the great expose contained in the current issue of his journal. In the course of the story he takes occasion to describe his four leading characters. They are the Governor of the State, a well-known attorney, the editor of one of the leading daily papers of the State and HIMSELF. He covered the Governor's virtues in 86 words, dismissed the lawyer and the editor in 70 and 53 words respectively, but found it necessary to use up 164 words to give the public any adequate conception of the wonderful importance of HIMSELF. He concludes HIS laudation of HIMSELF with these dreadfully sanguinary words, "a man who would fight to the hilt and trace a cross mark with the last drop." Isn't it dreadful to think we have such a "bad-un" liging in our midst?—Starke Telegraph.

FIXING DELEGATES FOR CORTELYOU

Further Evidence That Effort Will Be Made to Nominate Him.

A REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

Former Governor Francis of Missouri Will Be a Candidate for Democratic Nomination for President--Why Fleet Goes to Pacific.

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., July 22.—Since saying last week that means were being used to round up the Federal officials for Secretary Cortelyou for the Republican nomination for President, further evidence has come to light that the scheme is working. Congressman Jesse Overstreet declared, a few days ago, that the delegation from New York is fixed for Cortelyou, but as Mr. Overstreet is a Fairbanks man he may have joined in exposing the Cortelyou conspiracy on purpose to embarrass President Roosevelt, for he said he did not expect to see Mr. Cortelyou nominated. Then along comes Senator Elkins of West Virginia, fresh from political conferences in New York with his Wall Street railroad friends, and declares: "Cortelyou will undoubtedly have the support of the New York delegation. And you know what that means." With Overstreet and Elkins enlisted for him and the corporation money ready to be poured out for him, Mr. Cortelyou will make a typical Republican candidate.

Only one new candidate has developed for the Democratic nomination during the past week, and he has not yet reached the newspaper state, but I am assured by an Illinois editor, a friend of Mr. Bryan, that former Governor Francis will be a candidate. As he has always been a consistent Democrat and chiefly supplied the funds to carry Missouri for Mr. Bryan in 1896, he must be seriously considered as one to be reckoned with when the convention decides that crucial question for the Democracy.

Here in Washington President Roosevelt's Napoleanic move of massing in the Pacific the greatest flotilla of battleships ever assembled in any waters has prematurely revealed a plan whose political purpose is as plain as day. In withdrawing his first denial that any such intention was entertained, the President from Oyster Bay issued, through Loeb, a second statement to the effect that it was not the intention of the Government to send this fleet of battleships to the Pacific "at once." Of course they are not to be sent at once. The purpose of sending them being purely political, the movement will be reserved until late in the year 1907, and during the whole of the year 1908, until after election in November. Those who study the situation and look beyond the mere day, know that the present dynasty has decided that something must be done to distract public attention from our over-discussed domestic conditions. They have been talked to death, all except the tariff, and as that will not down, it is necessary to divert public attention from it. What more pregnant topic for debate, or the development of mob heat, than the fact that you have a neighbor on your border acting suspiciously, so suspiciously that it is necessary for you to maintain at the danger point the greatest flotilla of battleships ever brought together in time of peace. When this debate is on, which Mr. Roosevelt is obviously preparing for, no eloquence, however great, will be strong enough to fix public attention upon the revision of schedules or the discussion of any domestic political abuse.

Considering how personally profitable foreign wars have been in the career of the late police commissioner of New York, one need not wonder at the evidence of the preparations now being made to jingo a successor to Mr. Roosevelt into the Presidency in 1908.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff. It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair won't get diseased. Grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair troubles, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ, and so far the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly, makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not strictly out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nervine. By its timely use much needless sickness and suffering may be avoided. The expectant mother, by its use, is enabled to go cheerfully through the ordeal, seldom have to be confined if this most valuable woman's remedy be used, and to enjoy a good time. The Favorite Prescription has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please, that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, postpaid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

SMALLEST BABY KNOWN.

Ten-Cent Piece Hides Its Hands, a Dollar Piece Its Face.

New York, July 22.—The baby incubator establishment at Dreamland, Coney Island, has received what is believed to be the smallest living baby ever born.

It was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brown, of this city. It is a girl and weighs but 20 ounces. The height of the baby is 11 inches, its arms are 3 inches long, and from temple to temple the measurement is 2 inches. Both hands of the baby will go at one time through the mother's wedding ring. A ten-cent piece hides its hands; a dollar hides its face.

ROYALTY STONED.

Hoodlums Hurl Stones at Auto of Portuguese Queen.

London, July 22.—Dispatches from Lisbon and Bucharest bring stories of royalty being stoned while motoring.

While Queen Margueret and her son, Prince Manuel were automobiling they were stoned by hoodlums. Her majesty was struck on the arm, but was not seriously hurt.

Crown Prince Ferdinand of Roumania was stoned and hurt by a peasant while motoring in a district affected by agrarian unrest. The prince stopped the car, alighted and chased and captured the man, whom he handed over to the police.

Leaped From Moving Train.

Rockwood, Tenn., July 22.—Amos Taylor, sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary for murder, leaped from the window of a fast moving train at Landing Friday morning and made his escape. He was in custody of two deputies, on the way to Brushy Mountain prison to begin serving his sentence.

Cheerfully Recommended for Rheumatism.

O. G. Higbee, Danville, Ill., writes, Dec. 2, 1901: "About two years ago I was laid up for months with rheumatism. I tried Ballard's Snow Liniment; one bottle cured me. I can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from like affliction." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

S. S. S. HEALS OLD SORES

An old sore or ulcer is an opening in the skin caused by the impurities and poisons in the blood. The application of salves, lotions and other local remedies does no good, as the blood remains in its impure condition. The sore, however, may be healed for a time, but a fresh outpouring of poisons will break it out again, and thus it goes on for months and years, undermining the entire health of the victim. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated, sometimes it is from the use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, sometimes it is from the use of mercury in the system, sometimes it is from the effort to remove the poisons and waste matter through the pores of the skin, but whatever the cause, the blood is filled with poisons and germs which sooner or later is made manifest in the form of boils, carbuncles, sores and ulcers. Persons with tainted blood can not expect to escape these and other troubles. The taint may be dormant during youth, or even during the early years of middle age, but when middle age is reached and the vital energies begin to grow weaker, the tainted blood will in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin the use of S. S. S. and remove the cause, and then the sore must heal. CUBAN JOAN OF ARC.

Senora Quesada, Who Was Given that Title, Has Just Died

New York, July 22.—Cable advices from Havana, Cuba, announce the death of Senora Ajuana Quesada, the Cuban Joan of Arc, at the age of 70 years.

Senora Quesada was the best known woman in the island. She came of a good family in Camaguey, but despite the comforts and luxury which her circumstances gave her, she chose to aid her countrymen in the field in the ten-year war against Spain. Senora Quesada was only one of many Amazons who wielded a machete in the struggle, but her bravery and the standing of her family made her the best known.

She served throughout that long, hard campaign under the command of General Manuel Gomez. Again in the revolution against Spain that began in 1895 and ended in 1898 with the overthrow of the Spanish rule, Senora Quesada, though then advanced in age, took part in the uprising for "Cuba Libre."

For several summers before Cuba obtained her independence Senora Quesada spent the season at Manhattan Beach. She was old and gray-haired and her gentle manner and evident refinement seemed hardly consistent with her reputation as the Cuban Joan of Arc. Patrick Sarsfield Gilmore, who in those days conducted the Twenty-second regiment band at Manhattan Beach, often publicly honored the woman patriot.

Whenever Senora Quesada was in the audience in the amphitheater the band would play the "Hymno Bayamo," which since has become the Cuban national hymn.

GIFT OF DR. HARDMAN.

Gives 600 Acres of Land for an Institution for Wayward Children.

New York, July 22.—The Rev. Crawford Jackson, of Atlanta, Ga., who has for several years headed a movement in the south for the protection of wayward children, announced in this city Friday that Dr. L. G. Hardman, of Commerce, Ga., has given 600 acres of valuable land near Athens, in that state, for the founding of an industrial and educational institution for the unfortunate.

Mr. Crawford, in recent years, has been instrumental in securing state legislation providing for juvenile courts in the south.

The new institution will be open to the entire south. The plan at present is to devote the Hardman gift to white children only and then in time to acquire more land on which to erect an institution for wayward negro children.

Mr. Jackson entered upon the work after he had been attracted to a bright youth who had been arrested and incarcerated with hardened criminals in Atlanta.

BRIEF DISPATCHES.

President Amador, of Panama, has arrived in Paris. He is here for a rest, he says, and has no political mission.

A dispatch from Paris quotes Madame Anna Gould as denying recently published reports that she was engaged, and would soon marry again.

Emperor William, of Germany, has arrived at Trondhjem, on his annual visit to the land of "the midnight sun." Eight German warships are acting as an escort to the imperial yacht Hohenzollern.

The Farmers' National bank of Doylestown, Pa., has been ordered closed by the comptroller of the currency on a report of National Bank Examiner Bingham showing it to be insolvent.

The result of the vote of the members of the Merchant's Association of New York, upon the preambles and resolution approving the action of the government in successfully negotiating a tariff agreement with Germany has been overwhelmingly in support of the preambles and resolution submitted.

A dispatch from Seattle to the Portland Oregonian says if plans in course of formation come to maturity Seattle will be the headquarters of a new Zion movement. Alexander Granger, who was Dowie's hand man when that leader was in the height of his glory, is expected in the city soon.

May Be Phosphate Rock.

Columbus, Ga., July 22.—R. H. Moreland has discovered on his farm in Russell county, Alabama, 9 miles from this city, what appears to be a deposit of phosphate rock, and has sent a specimen of the supposed phosphate to the state chemist of Alabama to be analyzed.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle

AZZALI DIED A HERO.

Lost His Life in Attempt to Rescue Drowning Men.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 22.—It develops, according to persons who witnessed the incident, that Colonel Augusto Azzali, leader of the banda gendarme of Guadalajara, Mexico, who was drowned in the surf on Friday evening, died a hero.

Three of Azzali's comrades, it appears, waded into deep water and began to struggle for their lives. Azzali went to their assistance without considering or realizing the danger. He managed to push the drowning men toward shore until they found a firm footing, but his struggles exhausted him and he sank.

Azzali and his band went to Philadelphia with the El Paso Elks. His band took first prize for their showing in the Elks' parade, but Azzali did not know it. About the time he lost his life the list of prize winners was being read off in the Philidaelphia convention hall.

The Smile

That won't come off appears on baby's face after one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, the great worm medicine. Why not keep that smile on baby's face? If you keep this medicine on hand, you will never see anything else but smiles on his face. Mrs. S——, Blackwell, Okla., writes: "My baby was peevish and fretful. Would not eat and I feared he would die. I used a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and he has not had a sick day since." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

STEPHEN GIRARD.

The Eccentric Millionaire Was a Man of Many Moods.

To get a subscription from Stephen Girard, founder of Girard college in Philadelphia, was not an easy matter. It required tact and the right introduction, and many failed, while few succeeded. It is told by the author of "The French Blood In America" that Samuel Coates, a genial Quaker, was one of the few men who knew how to approach the eccentric millionaire.

He was a manager of the Pennsylvania hospital and called on Girard for the purpose of raising money for the support of that institution.

"Well, how much do you want, Coates?" asked Girard in his usual brusque tones.

"Just what thee pleases to give, Stephen," replied the Quaker. Girard wrote out a check for $2,000 and, handing it to Mr. Coates, was surprised to see that gentleman pocket it without looking at the amount.

"What! You don't look to see how much I give you?" cried Girard incredulously.

"Beggars must not be choosers, Stephen," replied the Quaker.

"Give me back my check, and I will change it," said Girard after a moment's pause.

"A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, thee knows, Stephen," mildly replied the Quaker. Without another word Girard sat down and wrote him out a second check for $5,000.

His farm on the outskirts of Philadelphia was one of the best in the country, and while living in town he often drove out before breakfast to see that all was going well. He was very exacting with his hired hands and never trusted the management of his farm to any one else, but ran it himself, as he did all his affairs. Arriving one morning a little earlier than usual, he was greatly annoyed at not finding his man at work on a fence that he was building. The man's wife, noticing Girard approaching the house, hurriedly awoke her husband and sent him to his duties by way of the back door. After visiting the house Girard returned to the fence and, seeing the man at his post, reprimanded him for being late.

"I'd been here, sir, but went back for a spade," said the workman.

"No, you hadn't. I went and put my hand in your bed and found it warm," replied Girard, and he discharged the man on the spot.

CONVERSATION DON'TS.

Don't say "You was," but "You were."

Don't say "He don't," but "He doesn't."

Don't say "Not as I know," but "Not that I know."

Don't say "He is older than me," but "He is older than I."

Don't say "Between you and I," but "Between you and me."

Don't say "She is some better," but "She is somewhat better."

Don't say "This is the finest of any," but "This is finer than any."

Don't say "Where are you stopping?" but "Where are you staying?"

Don't say "I dislike her worse than ever," but "I dislike her more than ever."

Don't say "I was raised in New England," but "I was reared in New England."

Don't say "I rarely ever go anywhere," but "I rarely if ever go anywhere."

Don't say "Either of the three will do," but "Any of the three will do."—St. Louis Republic.

The Careful Scot.

While enjoying a pleasant smoke in a railway carriage a Scotchman was asked by his fellow passenger, a Welshman, if he could oblige him with a match and after some consideration reluctantly complied with the modest request. Placing the match upon the window ledge, the Welshman produced an empty pipe, and, gripping it between his teeth, gazed mournfully at his companion. This having no effect, he made an ostentatious and fruitless tour of his pockets. "Dear, dear, how unlucky I am!" he exclaimed at length. "I've left my tobacco at home." "Verra unfortunate," agreed the Scotchman, and, stretching out a hand for the match, he added with evident relief, "An' now ye'll no require this 'vestie!"—Glasgow Times.

Reassuring.

"Now, be careful how you drive, cabby, and go slowly over the stones, for I hate to be shaken. And, mind you, pull up at the right house and look out for those dreadful railway lamps."

"Never fear, sir; I'll do my best. And which 'orspital would you wish to be taken to, sir, in case of an accident?"—London Tit-Bits.

Indefinable Perfection.

Since the beginning of time the human brain has never succeeded in defining with the necessary exactitude what really constitutes a perfect woman.—Outlook.

Genius is not essential to good preaching, but a live man is.—Phelps.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

That Body Was to Have Met Yesterday. But Quorum Not Present.

The City Council was to have met in adjourned session Monday afternoon to consider and pass upon its third and last reading the ordinance providing for the lateral connections with the sewerage system of the city, but a quorum could not be secured hence the meeting was postponed until this afternoon.

Owing to the fact that some of the aldermen are absent from the city it is difficult to secure a quorum at this season of the year, and repeated efforts have been unsuccessful.

BOOKS ARE BEING ADDED.

Eighteen New Books, Suitable for Summer Reading, Just In.

The public library announces that eighteen new books, suitable for summer reading, have just been received, and these books will prove of unusual interest to subscribers of the library.

The membership is yet too small to keep up a library of the standing which has been maintained by the Gainesville public library, and it is hoped that those in sympathy with the movement will enter their names as subscribers at once.

The Roberts' to Move.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts, who own a nice home in North Gainesville, will regret to learn that they expect to move to Miami. At least this is the report, emanating from a close personal friend of Mr. Roberts.

Mr. Roberts, as was stated in The Sun of Saturday morning, is now in Chicago, where he is staging three plays from his own pen. It is said that as soon as he returns preparations will be made to go to Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts have had many friends during their residence here, all of whom will regret very much to lose them.
